Love Letter — “Moving Your Piece”

My Dear, I just wanted to say ~

If there's someplace you want to go. Someone you want to become. It's up to you to move your own piece in the game of life.

Where do you choose to go?

Say you want to go to the movies. Are you going to sit waiting for someone to ask you or drive you?

If you really want to go to the movies, you've got to move your piece there. Find ways. Ask for help. Take action.

Otherwise, your piece will never get to the theatre.

Remember, you get to say where your piece will go. Choose it and make it happen!

*All My Lovin,
A.*
